

19th International Maritime Law Arbitration Moot Competition

The Singapore Chamber of Maritime Arbitration (SCMA) was a General Sponsor and Prize Sponsor of the 19th International Maritime Law Arbitration Moot Competition (IMLAM) organised by the Murdoch University School of Law. IMLAM is a moot competition open to students enrolled in a law degree and who have not been admitted to practice. The moot problem involves a dispute relating to commercial maritime law and the controversy will be determined before an arbitral tribunal.

28 teams from 13 countries participated in the 19th IMLAM held in Brisbane. SCMA was the prize sponsor for the Best Respondent Memorandum and Best Claimant Memorandum awards. Mr Angus Stewart, SC from New Chambers in Sydney, an SCMA Panel Arbitrator, presented the memorandum prizes to the deserving teams.

Congratulations to the University of Sydney for winning the Best Respondent Memorandum award and University of Queensland for winning the Best Claimant Memorandum award! SCMA would also like to thank Mr Angus Stewart, SC, for presenting the prizes on behalf of SCMA.

Mr Angus Stewart, SC, with the University of Sydney, winners of the Best Respondent Memorandum award

Mr Angus Stewart, SC, with the University of Queensland, winners of the Best Claimant Memorandum award

Photos courtesy of IMLAM 2018