

As announced at our Annual Conference on 23rd October 2015, I am pleased to advise that SCMA Rules Version 3 will come into force with effect from October 2015. Copies of the New Rules are now available free of charge from our office and a soft copy together with commentary is also available now on our revamped website. Please visit it at : <http://www.scma.org.sg/rules.html>

To provide users, members and stakeholders with a better understanding of the new rules, I am pleased to advise that SCMA will be hosting a 30 min tea talk (free of charge) to explain the changes in detail. Everyone is welcome to register their interest to attend:
