ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Roderick Cordara QC
Essex Court Chambers

Roderick Cordara, of Essex Court Chambers, London has over 30 years' experience in international commercial arbitration and litigation, in which he acts both as Counsel and Arbitrator.

He has particular expertise in international disputes in the shipping, shipbuilding, and energy exploration/production sectors.

Apart from general 'dry' shipping work, he has specialised in shipbuilding disputes, both in arbitration and the Courts. He has acted for and against European and Far Eastern Yards, principally in cases involving attempted rejection of vessels.

He was Counsel for the Yard in the celebrated case of Stocznia Gdanska in the House of Lords.

He is admitted to appear in the UK, EU, and Australian Courts, as well as the Singapore International Commercial Court.
