

ELIZABETH SLOANE

E elizabeth.sloane@hfw.com

D +61 (0)3 8601 4515 / +852 3983 7788

Qualifications: Australian Lawyer, Supreme Court of Victoria
Barrister and Solicitor, High Court of Australia
Solicitor, High Court of Hong Kong
Solicitor, Senior Courts of England and Wales

Education: Bachelor of Laws (University of Melbourne)
Bachelor of Commerce (Hons) (University of Melbourne)
Master of Laws (Commercial Law) (Monash University)

Professional Memberships

Fellow, Chartered Institute of Arbitrators
Fellow, Malaysian Institute of Arbitrators
Member, Hong Kong Maritime Arbitration Group

Experience:

Partner at international law firm HFW in Australia and Hong Kong.

Substantial experience in ad hoc and institutional international arbitration including LMAA, HKIAC, SIAC, LCIA, HKMAG, SCMA.

Specialised expertise in wet and dry shipping disputes including collisions, groundings, salvage, charterparty disputes, claims arising out of the carriage of goods by sea, shipbuilding arbitrations, sale of goods, marine insurance, bunker and fuel disputes, sale and purchase of goods, and trade and commodity finance disputes.

Substantial experience obtaining Court measures supportive of arbitration including Mareva injunctions, warrants for the arrest of ships, judicial sale of vessels, asset preservation measures, recognition and enforcement of arbitral awards, ship finance enforcement.

Contributing author, Bills of Lading chapter, Maritime Law and Practice in Hong Kong, Sweet & Maxwell (3rd edition).

Legal Masterclass Trainer for BIMCO, lecturing maritime law course across the Asia Pacific Region.