

NAME: Jeffrey Lock
Maritime Arbitrator

EDUCATION:

- Liverpool John Moores University (1988 – 1991)
- BPP Law School, London (1994 – 1998)

QUALIFICATIONS:

- BSc Maritime Studies: 1st Class Honours
- LLDip Post Graduate Diploma in Law
- Master Mariner (Foreign Going)
- Solicitor: Admitted 1998
- LMAA Aspiring Full Member
- Member of Baltic Exchange
- Associate Fellow of Nautical Institute

Career History:

1974 to 1991 - Seagoing

Served as Chief Officer on VLCC, petrochemical and oil products tankers and bulk carriers, trading worldwide. Came ashore in 1987 to complete a degree in maritime studies and continued to work as Chief Officer and Master on rig supply and anchor handling vessels.

1991 to 1993 – Lloyds Register

Nautical Advisor in the Ship Emergency Response Service (SERS) providing technical assistance in respect of ship stability and cargo control in hull damage situations.

1993 to 2011 – Maritime Lawyer

Maritime lawyer working in London specialising in salvage, total loss and collision matters for P&I Clubs, shipowners and charterers as well as a “dry” caseload including cargo damage, bill of lading disputes, unsafe port, speed and consumption claims, bunker and oil cargo contamination disputes and MOA disputes.

2011 to 2021 – Thomas Miller P&I

Joined Thomas Miller handling claims for shipowner and charterer Members dealing with legal and technical issues arising from Carriage of Goods, cargo loss and damage, ship collisions, groundings, fires and explosions, salvage, General Average, unsafe port and bunker contamination disputes. Rose to Global Technical Claims Director responsible for the strategic handling of major claims across the Club’s offices worldwide.

2023 to date – Maritime Arbitrator

Full time arbitrator with well over 100 arbitration appointments involving a variety of maritime disputes. Aspiring Full Member of the London Maritime Arbitrators Association and a Member of the Baltic Exchange.

Contact Details:

Email: lock.arbitration@protonmail.com

Mobile: +44 (0)7941 667709

Address: 5 Queens Park Gardens. Seaford, East Sussex BN25 2QE, UK